

Oral Presentation Guidelines

- This oral presentation must be at least a minute long and maximum two minutes.
- The students can work in pairs or individually.
- The student must handout a script of the dialogue they're going to present.
- The topic or scene is free to choose. Neither any type of content prohibited for a school context.
- The dialogue must not use any type of profanities or curse words.
- The participation must be evenly spread.

The oral presentation will be a dialogue from the student's imagination. It must focus on the use of the conditional zero and the first conditional for possible future; first conditional with modal verbs (can, may, might) and first conditional to give advice (should or shouldn't).
